CAMERON ART MUSEUM

KIDS@CAMP 2017

Registration Opens March 4th, 2017

Museum camp at the Cameron Art Museum provides an imaginative and nurturing environment for your young artists to explore the museum. Children are introduced to an assortment of materials, techniques and ideas. All campers work in a variety of mediums, creating their own works of art; creativity and self-expression are encouraged! Each session culminates with a Campers' Art Reception for family and friends.

Contact Georgia Mastroieni, Director of Youth and Family Education, after March 1st, 2017 if your camper has any specific questions: 910-395-5999 ext. 1019

Register Early! Camps are limited to 15 students and can fill quickly.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE:

ART REBELS

Learn about pioneering artists who changed the course of art history by making their own rules. From Michelangelo to Van Gogh, these artists were considered wild and radical at the time but are now some of our most beloved artistic heroes. Campers make art in these different styles while having the freedom to develop their own.
