Dear Friend of CAM,

It is thanks to you that over 60,000 people visited Cameron Art Museum (CAM) this year and participated in its programs – from concerts, to gallery talks, to classes in the Museum School. Over 8,000 of these were children who took art classes, participated in summer camps, and enjoyed interactive tours of the galleries.

We know that you understand the power of the arts, and we hope that you will choose to make CAM a part of your year-end giving.

This year, 500 North Carolina pre-K students visited CAM to see the groundbreaking exhibition A Time When Art Is Everywhere by the international artist collaborative team Lab. This is what one teacher had to say about her students' experience:

“The boys and girls were so fortunate to be able to experience this wonderful opportunity. They were able to talk about being an artist and seeing first-hand what an exhibit looks like. The art coming to life was so amazing and each child loved finding their sea creature that they made swimming across the wall. It provided such a wonderful bonding experience with the parents and grandparents that came with us. They watched with amazement and gave such kind and encouraging words to their child. The children were encouraging each other to touch here or touch there. They could have stayed all day. “

As you can see, your gift makes a true difference in our community.

We invite you to join us this season by supporting CAM. Your gift can do so much – from helping fund an exhibition to providing gallery tours for those living with dementia. We simply can't do it without you. Your support will make a real and lasting impact on our community by providing high-quality art opportunities to all.

Sincerely,
