

Boundless Sculpture: A Portrait of Freedom

Grades PreK-12

Building off the area's impactful history in the Civil War, Boundless honors the United States Colored Troops (USCT) who bravely fought for their personal and our country's freedom. It is this theme of freedom that this tour examines. Cultural Curator, Daniel Jones, and members of the Education team educate on the significance of the Battle of Forks Road as well as the cultural significance of what it means to be free in our evolving society.

Social Studies Standards

Kindergarten: Civics and Government

Understand that people work together to create and follow rules.

Grade 1-4: History

Understand how people and events have changed society over time.

Grade 5-8: Behavioral Science

Explain how traditions, social structure, and artistic expression have contributed to the unique identity of the United States.

Grade 5-8: History

Explain how recovery, resistance, and resilience to inequities, injustices, discrimination, prejudice, and bias have shaped the history of North Carolina and the nation.

Grades 9-12: American History: Behavioral Science

Explain how the experiences and achievements of minorities and marginalized peoples have contributed to American identity over time in terms of the struggle against bias, racism, oppression, and discrimination.

Grades 9-12: American History: Civics and Government

Critique the extent to which various levels of government used power to expand or restrict the freedom and equality of American people.

Visual Arts Standards

Grade K-12: Visual Literacy

Use the language of visual arts to communicate effectively.

Grade K-12: Critical Response

Use critical analysis to generate responses to a variety of prompts.

Grade K-12 Contextual Relevancy

Understand the interdisciplinary connections and life applications of the visual arts.

To book a guided tour, please email education@cameronartmuseum.org or call 910-726-9490